REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

2004-2005 was a very exciting year for Hilton Head Middle School. Students excelled in both academics and athletics while demonstrating good character in their day-to-day behavior. We had 34 Junior Scholars. The guidance program in the seventh and eighth grades provided additional after-school instruction to assist our students in excelling on the SAT exams. 45 seventh grade students were eligible to take the SAT and six qualified for the Duke Talent Improvement Program.

Our students received local, regional, state, and national awards and recognition in the Science Fair, Chess Tournaments, Math Counts and the United Nations Middle Schools Symposium. We celebrated regional sports championships. All of our athletes are required to meet academic standards prior to being eligible for any athletic program. We pride ourselves in our motto; "Academics before Athletics. Our students were privileged to have two Olympic Athletes visit our school. Rulon Gardner, Olympic Wrestler and Michael Johnson, Track Star, visited with students and shared the importance of good character, receiving an education, setting goals and determination.

We implemented a school-wide discipline plan and required students to use their agenda books. Our staff worked hard to prepare students for the PACT test. We look forward to these results in the fall. Also, MAP testing, Measure of Academic Performance, a district initiative, was implemented to gauge academic gains for all students. Teachers and students set goals and many celebrations were had when spring testing was completed.

Our staff, students, and community came together during two tragedies that hit close to our hearts. A family member of one of our staff was critically injured in the Tsunami. Teacher of the Year, Kathy Jaworski, lost her fight with cancer. Our Stingray family came together to support both of these families. We helped with the medical bills for Maggie North after her return from Thailand, and we celebrated the life of our fallen Stingray by holding a memorial and planting an herb garden in our center courtyard.

The Parent Teacher Association and the School Improvement Council worked very closely with the administration to make many improvements to Hilton Head Middle School. We collaborated on campus-wide beautification projects, school improvements, and school spirit. We also had our first ever Academic Pep Rally. Students were recognized for Perfect Attendance, Character Education, Honor Roll, PACT scores and gains in MAPS scores.

The HHMS Booster Club brought a lot of school pride to our school. Collaborating with many local businesses, the Booster Club bought banners for the gym, purchased the first ever Stingray Mascot, purchased new score boards, tables, and player chairs for the gym. They also updated our trophy cases and painted our Hall of Champions. Many other improvements were made with the Booster Club and PTA collaborating with the school.

We look forward to continued improvement in the next school year. The staff, students, parents and Hilton Head community are all dedicated to making Hilton Head Middle School one of the best schools in the southeast!
